EDMONTON (July 16, 2024) - Super Channel is pleased to announce the Canadian premiere of the Australian crime drama Tropo. Season one (8x60) of this gripping murder mystery will debut exclusively on Super Channel Fuse on Sunday, August 4 at 9 p.m. ET, with each episode available to stream On Demand the following day.

Set in the wilds of Far North Queensland, Tropo is the story of disgraced ex-cop Ted Conkaffey (Thomas Jane) who is begrudgingly recruited by Amanda Pharrell (Nicole Chamoun) - an eccentric private investigator with a disturbing criminal past - to investigate what emerges to be the murder of a brilliant tech pioneer. As they battle to uncover the truth amid the tightly held secrets of Crimson Lake, their own traumatic pasts are dragged painfully into the present - tearing them apart, as each of them faces their own fight for sanity and indeed survival.

“With superb performances and a story from best-selling author Candice Fox, we are thrilled to deliver our viewers another great Australian drama with Troppo,” said Kim Ball, Chief Content Officer, Super Channel. “We are confident Canadian audiences will love this captivating mystery, filled with twists and turns.”

Inspired by Candice Fox’s bestselling novel Crimson Lake, Troppo is an EQ Media Group and Beyond Entertainment production in association with Renegade Entertainment, with major production financing from the Australian Broadcasting Corporation, AGC Studios in association with Aperture Media Partners, and Screen Australia in association with Screen Queensland and with support from the City of Gold Coast. Creator Yolanda Ramke. Producer Lisa Duff. Series Producer Karl Zwicky. Executive Producers: Greg Quail, Lisa Duff, and Simonne Overend (EQ Media Group); Mikael Borglund and David Ogilvy (Beyond Entertainment); Stuart Ford and Lourdes Diaz and co-EP Matt Bankston (AGC Studios); Sally Riley and Andrew Gregory (Australian Broadcasting Corporation); and Thomas Jane and Courtney Lauren Penn (Renegade Entertainment); and Yolanda Ramke. Australian Broadcasting Corporation Deputy Head of Scripted Production: Alex Baldwin. AGC International is handling international distribution.
